(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FARMVILLE, VA., July 4.—With an able and enthusiastic corps of instructors, and with increasing numbers of earnest and devoted students-teachers, the Farmville Summer School is already an assured success.

Beginning less than a week ago with an enrollment of fifty, which has steadily increased to seventy-five and promises to reach one hundred, this school bids fair to stand well in the front among the ton summer institutes in point of number. In the personnel of the faculty, the nature of its equipment, the cheapness of board and tuitton, this institute claims first place. The business manager, Rev. J. H. Davis, has foreseen and provided for all the needs of the members of the institute. Ice lithia water is furnished free at the School to all and free contertainments are arranged for each week.

Democrats Will Certainly Make Desperate Effort to Elect Judge Saunders.

Judge Saunders.

The real battleground of politics in Virginia this fall will be over in the Fifth Congressional District, where Judge E. W. Saunders, of Franklin, has been nominated by the Democrats to succeed Governor Swanson in the national House. So far the Republicans have made no nomination, but they are figuring on either Petimaster B. A. Davis, of Rocky Mount, or former Congressman John R. Brown, of Chatham.

The Republicans are strong in the Fifth, and, while Judge Saunders is not the "mixer" that Governor Swanson is, yet there is a strong foeling that he will be able to hold the district in line for the Democrats.

The Dest talent in the party will be thrown on the stump in the Fifth, Among the strong speakers who will likely go to the aid of Judge Saunders will be Senator Daniel, Governor Swanson, former Governor Montague, and a great many others.
